

AESTHETIC INSIGHTS

It seems I always begin by saying how much has happened since our last newsletter; and once again, it's absolutely true.

In a significant milestone for the College, we held our first face-to-face Annual General Meeting (AGM) since the onset of COVID, coinciding with this year's Non-Surgical Symposium (NSS). It was truly rewarding to gather with fellow CPCA members in person; to connect, discuss the evolving challenges in our field, and enjoy some social time together.

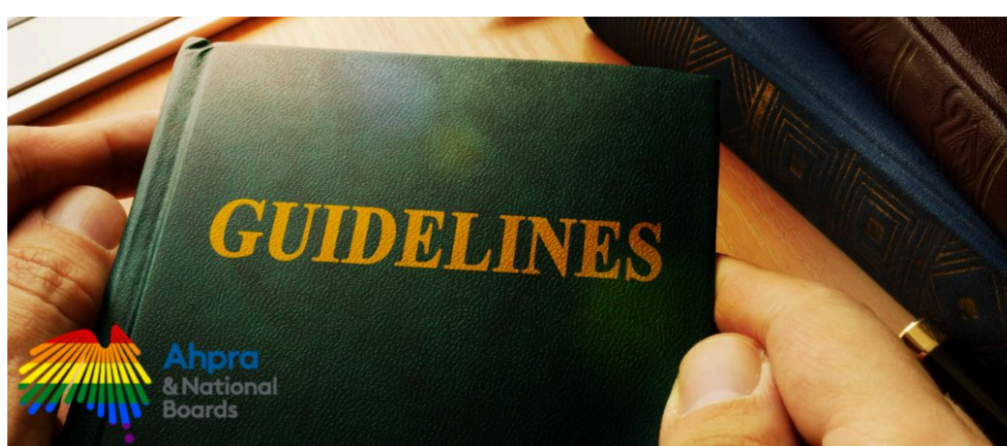

As only eight months had passed since our previous AGM, no motions were presented. Instead, the meeting focused on Board member reports and an open discussion from the floor. One of the most important topics raised was the future of education in cosmetic medicine, particularly regarding the Graduate Certificate of Cosmetic Medicine...<<read more>>

Just Released - Advance Copy Ahpra Guidelines - 'Advertising Higher Risk Non-surgical Cosmetic Procedures'

Ahpra and the National Boards have published advance copies of guidelines for anyone who is advertising higher-risk non-surgical cosmetic procedures. These guidelines build on existing responsibilities for practitioners and advertisers and are based largely on the Medical Board's Guidelines for registered medical practitioners who advertise cosmetic surgery. Click HERE for more information.

All advertising must comply with the new guidelines by the time they come into effect on Tuesday 2 September 2025.

CPCA Standards for Cosmetic Medicine

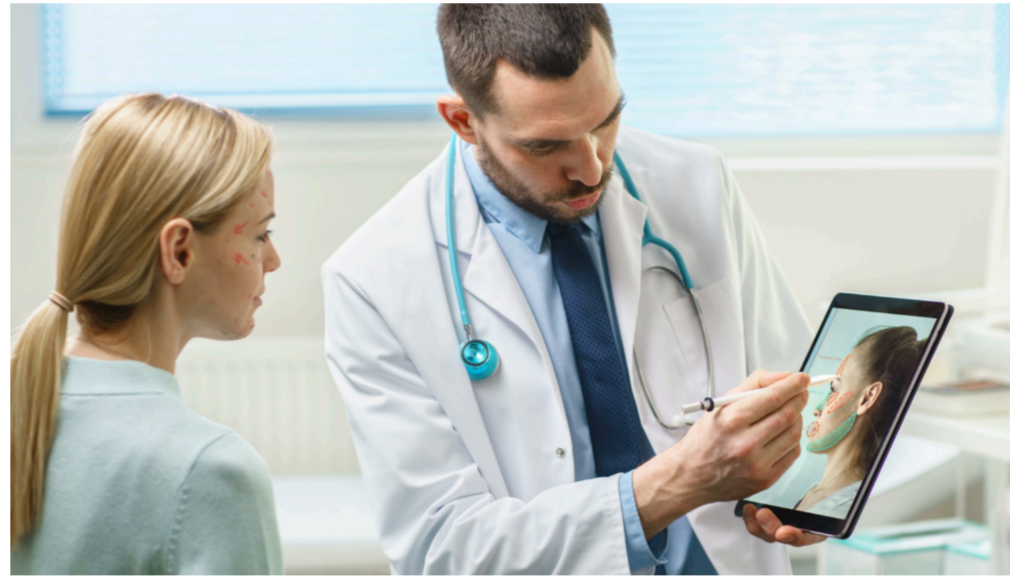

The College has recently released the CPCA Standards for Cosmetic Medicine as a guideline for Cosmetic Physicians. Members are advised to review this guideline to keep yourself informed of these standards. Click HERE to view the full policy.

ACP Annual Scientific Meeting 2026

You're invited to attend the 26th Annual Scientific Meeting of the Australasian College of Phlebology, to be held in Melbourne from 24th to 27th April 2026. The conference will be filled with enriching discussions, insightful presentations, and the opportunity to forge meaningful connections with fellow clinicians, researchers, scientists, and professionals from around the world. Click HERE for more information.

What the new Ahpra cosmetic guidelines mean for education and the future of patient safety

On 3 June 2025, the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) released a set of updated guidelines aimed at strengthening safety and oversight within the non-surgical cosmetic sector. These guidelines cover everything from prescribing protocols to advertising practices, signalling a necessary shift toward higher standards across the board. This is an interesting blog from another stakeholder of the profession regarding the new Ahpra cosmetic guidelines for your review. Click HERE to view the full blog.
